Welcome our Supply Pastor: Chaplain John Connolly

Chaplain John Connolly was raised in Gastonia, NC. He enlisted in the US Navy during high school. Following his enlistment, he attended UNC Charlotte and graduated in 1992 with a BS in Electrical Engineering. In 2002, he left his career as an engineer to attend Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary in Columbia, SC and graduated in 2006 with a Masters of Divinity. While attending seminary he was commissioned through the Chaplain Candidate Program Officer program as an ensign in preparation for returning to the Navy as a chaplain. After serving around the world as a Chaplain, in 2022 he reported to Navy Warfare Development Center in Norfolk, VA.

Fellowship Hour—Sunday, July 7th after worship

On the first Sunday of each month, we gather after worship for a time of fellowship in honor of the birthdays and anniversaries of that month. If you would like to volunteer to bring refreshments for one month, please contact Faith Longworth.

Threaders (onsite)—Tuesdays at 10am

Join the Threaders each Tuesday at 10am to make walker bags for people throughout our community. There are jobs for various skill levels: sewing machine operator, button sewer, iron operator, etc
